

MANDATE: *What is our objective as a body of learning?

At CHS, we value each student as an individual and as part of a community; we seek to recognize and to develop all aspects of their personhood with excellence, according to God's highest purpose for their "heart, soul, and mind."

Statement of Philosophy Regarding Works to be Studied in ELA Classes

Works will be drawn from both Christian and secular sources in an effort to portray a wide variety of responses to the human condition and experience. It is intended that the exploration of various world views from a Christian perspective will prepare students for the world beyond the classroom, as well as potentially for postsecondary education.

Eg.

Overarching Concept for C.H.S. ELA B30: The Human Condition and the response to it of both secular and Christian society.
